	Earthrise Spirulina is grown in desert sunshine at Earthrise Farms in a remote, clean area of California. Ecological cultivation and low temperature drying assure freshness, purity and potency from our farm to you. Earthrise Chlorella is specially cultivated in nutrient rich water and sunshine. In the drying process, the cell walls are cracked open slightly, for easy digestibility. Both spirulina and chlorella are grown without the use of pesticides, herbicides or preservatives.
